Why Choose Ken's Study Journey?

Ken's Study Journey is a platform made by a Chinese top student in senior high school, Ken Deng, which provides high-quality articles, resources, and even lectures related to my school life, study strategy, study tips, and study habits.

I am currently providing and recommending a range of great study habits (e. g. discovering knowledge in real life, using flashcards, using daily goals checklist) since 2019.

Since 2019, I have been featured by 2 extra curriculum institutions and a school:

- Aipei English
- TCTM \(Tongcheng Tongmei\) Programming for Children
- PCIS \(Phoenix City International School\)

I also have been praised by dozens of parents and teachers for my useful articles, study tips and great study habits. In other words, I may be a recognizable study tips provider by the public.

In order to study hard and get better results without increasing too much burden, I recommend students to be:

- Innovative
- Reflective
- Communicative
- Diligent / Industrious
- Risk-taking
- Resourceful
- Helpful
- Punctual / On time
- Active
- Obedient

I also have invented a great study tip and habit: discovering and applying knowledge in real life. Approximately 95% of other top students around world do not know doing this.

All public resources are free and non-profit, including my website, blog articles, PDF documents, tutorials and social media. Students, parents and teachers around the world can access them as they want.

I also provide assistance to students if they have difficulties on studying. You can contact me at any time, using my contacts on my website or at the end of this document. I am here to help you as long as I have free time.

"Ken is a top student in my class, who does not play games and has strong logical thinking skills."

Yong Xie, My Programming Teacher at TCTM Programming

Note: Ken's Study Journey is the brand name of Ken Deng's public resources about studying.

Privacy & Cookies Policy

Last Updated: November 5, 2021 (taken effect on 21 November, 2021)

The Privacy Policy has been updated to comply with the latest China Personal Information Protection Act, which was implemented on 1 November 2021. Updated items are shown in blue.

Hello there! I am Ken and welcome to Ken's Study Journey!

I care about your privacy and your privacy safety is my responsibility.

In order to protect your privacy, keep your privacy safe, and comply with some privacy laws around the world, I made this policy to let everyone know about my privacy usage. This policy describes my privacy usage and how I protect your privacy.

If you cannot understand this text, you may ask your parents, teachers, friends or contact me to fully understand them.

My service includes my personal website (www.kendeng1603.com), Ken's Study Journey website and apps (www.kenstudyjourney.com), Ken's Study Planner website and apps (planner.kenstudyjourney.com), Ken's Study Newsletter, and activities organised by me. This term applies to all of my services.

Anyone uses my services must agree and obey with the Terms of Service and my Privacy Policy. If you don't agree with them, you should unsubscribe from all of my contents and stop to use my services.

2. Who can Use my Services?

Anyone at any age can use my services, except spammers and spambots.

If you are under 12 years old, you should use my services under the supervision and guidance by your parents.

If you are a parent and you allow your children to use my services, you should supervise them with the obedience of my Terms of Service, letting them use my website correctly.

If you are a hacker, please report the bugs in my service to me as you found. You must not disrupt the order on any of my services.

Please Note: Hacking into my server will cause my server to present an emergency Internet disconnection.

3. Languages

I speak English and Chinese (Simplified, Mandarin) and all of my services are available in all of these languages, except for audio articles. You can send me comments and messages in these languages.

You can choose a language that is suitable for yourself, or use translators or translation apps to translate them into the language you are speaking.

You may report the mistakes in languages such as English grammatical mistakes. I will correct them and be more cautious in the future.

I use my maximum effort to translate most parts on my services correctly. The English version shall prevail if there are translation errors.

4. Study from Me

You may disassemble any of my programs if the local law permitted. All of my apps and programs are Free Software and open-source, and you can use them free of charge, unless noted otherwise. They should be used only for studying or doing research. However, leaking any of the relevant content from them publicly is strictly prohibited.

You may make friends with me so that we will be able to share your personal experiences and study better.

5. Equality

I do not discriminate anyone with different gender, ages, racisms, countries/regions, IP addresses MAC addresses, browsers, operating systems (e.g. Windows, macOS, Android, iOS, and even Huawei Harmony OS), brand or models of devices, screen sizes, etc. Different kinds of people or devices are treated equally and they have the same right to enjoy all of my services.

However, I may ban some robots or users who usually send spam messages or emails to keep my services run normally for you.

6. Assistance

I usually use my skills and maximum effort to help others about studying, solving others' problems, interpreting my contents as an understandable format, providing personal advice, making tutorials, and generating personal ideas. I am glad to help you.

You may request assistance at any time unless I don't have an opportunity for helping others. Just contact me on the contact page.

Getting help from me is completely free. You do not need to pay any extra for getting help.

7. Account

You do not need to create an account for browsing my website, sending comments or voting on my articles, but you may need to create an account to use all of my service (e.g. Ken's Study Planner).

You need to provide and verify your email address and/or phone number to create an account to verify your identification. You need to use them to recover your account or reset your password.

All of your information, such as passwords, are saved and encrypted on my server securely, and I will let you know if the passwords have been stolen by hackers.

8. Subscriptions

You may subscribe to my blog or email newsletter to get my new articles. If you no longer need them, you can unsubscribe from my email newsletter by clicking the unsubscribe button on any of my emails.

The new content notifications will be sent to the subscribers by the system automatically. I will not modify the subscriber details of my newsletter without your permission or send spams to the subscribers.

I will never leak your email addresses and I recommend you to use some privacy protections such as Apple's iCloud+ Email Privacy Relay (coming soon, i.e. fake random email addresses).

9. Comments

You may send comments on my articles to express your opinions, ideas, or suggestions, but you must not send prohibited contents listed in the Article 15 below.

I may reject and delete negative comments that can affect the views, subscribers amount, or my feelings, with email notice.

I only accept comments in English and Chinese (both simplified and traditional). I will reply to them using the corresponding language. All comments in other languages will be neglected and deleted.

10. Censoring

I only check your content, such as comments, that shows on my website publicly artificially, but I will not check your other content, such as your daily goals recorded on Ken's Study Planner or your password.

I never check your content on third-party platforms (outside my domains: kenstudyjourney.com, kendeng1603.com and their apps) without your permission.

11. Sharing and Advertisement

All of my services are non-profit and completely free. There are no advertisements on my website.

You are allowed to use an adblocker on your browsers or devices.

You may share or pass any of my content (e.g. my articles, PDF files and other resources) to your friends or any other people free of charge, but you must not resell them to earn money without my permission.

12. Privacy Safety & Cookies

I care about your privacy safety which is my responsibility. You can control my privacy usage by yourself.

My website uses Cookies and/or similar technologies to make statistics, improve my services, let you have a better experience, browse my website better and safely and, even for anti-spam requirement.

I strictly not collect or share your private information (e. g. ID Card Number) unless the law requires.

You also can send a request to me to view, correct and delete your data from my server.

During the Covid-19 pandemic, I may collect some necessary information on my server, such as your body temperature, when participating in my activities.

For more information, please see my Privacy & Cookies Policy.

13. Academic Honesty

Academic honesty is a set of principles about making your own work and avoid using other's ideas without their permission (known as plagiarism).

If you are a student, parent or teacher, you should obey academic honesty rules when using my website.

I will label the references information at the bottom of my articles clearly to make sure my articles are not plagiarized from other's articles, such as name, published date, publish house information, link, etc.

You may copy-paste or reblog any parts, such as my articles, on my website without my permission. However, you must label the references with the name of the author and the links when quoting my work on your projects and reblogging my articles.

There is no penalty for violating the academic honesty principle on my website, but be sure to follow the rules in your school or college.

- My server is crashed for some reason (e.g. a large number of spam comments, DDoS attack).
- My website or blog is temporarily out of service for special reasons (e.g. My study tasks is harder than making public resources).
- There is a natural disaster (e.g. Conflagration, Earthquake, Flooding).
- There is an error on the computer system (e.g. power failure, scheduled maintenance, software error, Internet cable failure, computer viruses)
- You have violated the Terms of Service.

I may disclose some information about schools, technology companies, things happened in some news, and so on in my blog articles to ensure the integrity of my contents. For example, GCGS (my school), PCIS (my previous junior high school), Apple, Microsoft.

If you are a staff and you do not want your information to be displayed in my website and blog, please contact me to delete them.

Some information on my blog are for reference only and they may be inaccurate. I cannot guarantee that all content on my website are correct.

19. Indemnify

You may need to indemnify to me if you violate the Terms of Service and disrupt my orders with unexpected monetary or property loss.

If I damage or destroy your things severely while using my services properly, I also have to indemnify to you. You can make a request for your severe damage. The maximum amount of indemnify of each time is 1,000 CNY. For example, my website and my apps may damage your devices due to severe bugs.

20. Legal

My services are based in the People Republic of China (PRC) and I will go to the United Kingdom for university later on. You should also obey laws in the People's Republic of China and the United Kingdom while using my services. The laws in China shall prevail if there are conflicts in laws between countries/regions.

You must not send any prohibited contents mentioned above and of your local laws.

I may change my Terms and Conditions when allowed by the laws of the People Republic of China and/or the United Kingdom.

If my Terms and Conditions conflict with your local laws, please let me know immediately. You may temporarily violate my Terms of Service and obey the local laws during this period and you will not be penalised for appropriate reasons while filing an appeal.

21. Change and Update

I may change the Terms and Conditions at any time. When I make new Terms and Conditions, I will let you know about this, using email newsletter, social media and reminding banners.

After I have updated my rules and policies, if you want to continue to use my services, you should agree with my new version of them. If you do not agree with my new rules and policies, you should stop to use my services before the date they take effect.

22. About the Terms

If you have any questions or doubts about the terms, please contact me and I will help you to understand them.

I have the right to interpret this policy if you do not understand them.
